

in the news

30/11/07

Graduation Course 186B

Students from Course 186B graduated as qualified ambulance officers during a ceremony at the Ambulance Education Centre at Rozelle on Friday 30 November 2007.

Students from Course 186B graduated as qualified ambulance officers during a ceremony at the Ambulance Education Centre at Rozelle on Friday 30 November 2007. Students were presented to Greg Rochford, Chief Executive, Noreen Hay MP Parliamentary Secretary for Health and Mike Willis, General Manager, Operations and received their Diploma in Paramedical Science (Ambulance).

Congratulations to Ambulance Officer Stephen Heighway on attaining the "High Achievers Award".

Ms Noreen Hay MP delivered the occasional speech and congratulated officers on their chosen career. She talked of the visible roles that officers have within the community and the decisions they must make in regard to patient care. You are the front line of health professionals. Noreen also mentioned the fact that ambulance officers were voted to be the most trusted profession. She thanked graduates on behalf of the Premier and Minister for Health and wished them well for the future.

Congratulations to all graduates from Course 186B.

Graduating Students from Course 185B - David Campbell, Michelle Chamberlain, John Dean, Tristan Hart, Stephen Heighway, Paula Jeffrey, Sharon Lawrence, Elizabeth Dredge, Michael Price, Kellee Silva and Phillipa Vallard.

Graduating Students from Course 185B with official guests.

Ambulance Officer Stephen Heighway receives the "High Achiever Award" from Greg Rochford, Chief Executive (left) and Noreen Hay MP Parliamentary Secretary for Health.

Occasional Speaker for the graduation was Noreen Hay MP Parliamentary Secretary for Health.