

National Day of Mourning

19 February 2009

To provide Sydney residents with a central place to come together and view the official proceedings of the National Day of Mourning, on Sunday 22 February 2009 the NSW Government will broadcast the service live from Melbourne's Rod Laver Arena on big screens at two Live Sites in the metropolitan region.

The venues will be the Sydney Opera House Forecourt and The Overflow grassed area at Sydney Olympic Park.

The Live Sites are free and open to all members of the community.

The broadcast will commence at 11am and is expected to conclude at 12:30pm.

If people are unable to come to one of the sites, they will still be able to watch the service as it will be televised on channels 7, 9, 10 and the ABC.

Premier Nathan Rees will represent New South Wales in Melbourne and pass on the state's condolences to the people of Victoria.
