

Paramedic

NSW Ambulance

Paramedic

*Paramedics wear dark blue shirts and dark blue pants.
Paramedics help people who are sick or hurt.*

Question:

What can you see the paramedic carrying?

Answer:

Paramedics carry bags with medicine and equipment to help people.

NSW Ambulance

Police Officer

NSW Ambulance

Police Officer

*Police Officers wear light blue shirts and dark blue pants
Police Officers help people who are scared or lost.*

Question:

Why do Police Officers have a big black belt?

Answer:

Police Officers use their belt to carry equipment.

NSW Ambulance

Firefighter

NSW Ambulance

Firefighter

Firefighters wear black and yellow uniforms with big helmets. Firefighters put out fires and rescue people from burning buildings.

Question:

Why do you think firefighters wear big coats and helmets?

Answer:

To protect themselves from the hot fires.

NSW Ambulance

Ambulance

NSW Ambulance

Ambulance

The Ambulance is a red and white van with flashing lights on the top and a noisy siren.

Question:

Why does the ambulance have a noisy siren?

Answer:

So they can let people know they are coming and to move out of the way.

NSW Ambulance

Police Car

NSW Ambulance

Police Car

The Police car is blue and white with flashing lights on top and a noisy siren.

Question:

Why is an ambulance bigger than a police car?

Answer:

An ambulance is big so when people are sick or hurt they can lie down.

NSW Ambulance

Fire Truck

NSW Ambulance

Fire Truck

The Fire Truck is really big and red and has flashing lights and a noisy siren.

Question:

Why doesn't your car have flashing lights or sirens?

Answer:

Flashing lights and sirens are for emergencies.

NSW Ambulance